UNIVERSITY OF LUCKNOW

Founded in 1867, the University of Lucknow is one of the oldest institutions of higher education in India. It is affiliated with esteemed bodies such as the University Grants Commission (UGC), Association of Commonwealth Universities (ACU), Association of Indian Universities (AIU), Distance Education Council (DEC), National Council of Teacher Education (NCTE), and the Bar Council of India (BCI). In recognition of its academic excellence, the University of Lucknow was awarded an A++ grade by the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) in July 2022.

In the National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF) 2025, the University of Lucknow achieved significant milestones, securing the 97th position among the top 100 universities in India. This marks a substantial improvement from its previous rank, underscoring its upward trajectory in academic performance. Notably, the university's Faculty of Law was ranked 29th among the top 39 law schools in India. Additionally, the University of Lucknow was ranked 27th in the state public university category, highlighting its consistent efforts to elevate its educational standards and reputation.

FACULTY OF LAW

The Faculty of Law at the University of Lucknow stands as a beacon of legal education in India, with its inception dating back to 1921. Initially established with just three teachers under the deanship of Mr. Jag Mohan Nath Chak, it was Prof. R. U. Singh who truly laid the foundation for its academic rigor. His efforts not only structured the faculty at Lucknow but also influenced the development of law faculties at Delhi University and Banaras Hindu University (BHU). The faculty's alumni include luminaries like Dr. Avtar Singh, a renowned expert in contract law; Dr. A. T. Markos, former Director of the Indian Law Institute; Dr. Shanker Dayal Sharma, former President of India; and Shri Ram Krishna Hegde, former Chief Minister of Karnataka. These distinguished individuals reflect the faculty's long-standing tradition of excellence in legal education.

In the 2024 National Institutional Ranking Framework (NIRF), the University of Lucknow achieved a significant milestone by securing the 98th position among the top 100 universities in India. The Faculty of Law, in particular, was ranked 29th among the top law schools in the country, outshining prominent institutions. This ranking underscores the faculty's commitment to academic excellence and its influential role in shaping the legal profession in India. The faculty's new campus, which houses over 1,400 students across various departments, is a testament to its modern infrastructure and comprehensive facilities, further enhancing the learning environment for both students and teachers.

BHARATIYA YUVA CHHATRA SANSAD 2026

The Bharatiya Yuva Chhatra Sansad (BYCS) is an initiative of the Faculty of Law, University of Lucknow, envisioned to provide young minds with a dynamic platform for parliamentary discourse, democratic engagement, and intellectual deliberation. The initiative seeks to simulate the functioning of the Indian Parliament, enabling participants to engage in structured debates, discussions.

The First Edition of Bharatiya Yuva Chhatra Sansad 2026, aims to nurture public speaking, leadership, critical thinking, research, and parliamentary skills among the youth. By bringing together school, undergraduate, and postgraduate students, the Sansad endeavours to foster constitutional values, democratic consciousness, constructive dialogue, and responsible citizenship, while providing participants with an enriching platform to express their perspectives and engage with diverse viewpoints.
