ABOUT NLIU BHOPAL

The National Law Institute University, Bhopal

The National Law Institute University (NLIU), Bhopal, established in 1997, is a premier institution for legal education and research in India. Recognised by the University Grants Commission (UGC) and the Bar Council of India (BCI), NLIU is committed to shaping legal minds through an interdisciplinary and innovative approach.

With a focus on preparing students for the dynamic landscape of modern law, NLIU's curriculum and research initiatives reflect the intersection of traditional legal principles with contemporary challenges.

In an era defined by innovation and digital transformation, NLIU remains at the forefront of legal education, exploring crucial areas like copyright protection and intellectual property rights. The University provides a platform for students and researchers to navigate the complexities of evolving legal frameworks, ensuring they are well-equipped to address the policy and practical issues arising from technological advancements.

Through a blend of rigorous academics and practical insights, NLIU contributes to the discourse on how law can effectively govern and shape our digital future.

ABOUT NLIU DPIIT-IPR CHAIR

The Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade (DPIIT), Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India, has established an Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) Chair at the National Law Institute, which aligns with the National IPR Policy. University, Bhopal. This initiative is a part of the Scheme for Pedagogy & Research in IPRs for Holistic Education and Academia (SPRIHA), which aligns with the National IPR Policy.

The Chair's primary objective is to foster a vibrant intellectual property ecosystem within the academic and legal communities. It serves as a dedicated platform for promoting excellence in IPR education, research, and outreach. By conducting cutting-edge studies and organising various events like seminars and workshops, the NLIU-DPIIT IPR Chair aims to bridge the gap between academia and industry. It plays a crucial role in building human capital and creating a conducive environment for innovation, while raising public awareness about the benefits of IP rights.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The First edition of the National Blog Writing Competition, 2026, organised by the NLIU–DPIIT IPR Chair, invites law students, academicians, researchers, and professionals from all fields of law to move beyond merely describing established laws, doctrines, and institutional practices, and to critically examine the assumptions underlying them.

The competition aims to foster critical research, innovative thinking, and engagement with emerging IPR issues, including artificial intelligence, copyright, patents, biotechnology, traditional knowledge, and digital technologies. It will also promote IP awareness and provide participants with opportunities for publication, recognition, cash prizes, and internships.

It provides a platform for developing legal research, analytical and writing skills, while making complex IP issues accessible to a wider audience. This initiative also supports objectives of promoting IP awareness, research, knowledge dissemination and meaningful public discourse on emerging IP issues.
