SUBMISSION DEADLINE
10 DECEMBER 2026

ABOUT THE INSTITUTION

Nestled amid the picturesque environs of Mar Ivanios Vidya Nagar, the inclusive yet vibrant Mar Gregorios College of Law aspires to be a wellspring of academic excellence in legal education. Although the institution was established in 2012, it strives to build upon the proud legacy of this campus, which was founded in 1949 by the esteemed Archbishop Geevarghese Mar Ivanios. The institution was conceived and made a reality by His Beatitude Moran Mor Baselios Cardinal Cleemis Catholicos, the head of the Malankara Catholic Church. It is named after Archbishop Benedict Mar Gregorios, a profound humanist, accomplished linguist, economist and educationalist, whose spirit of love and compassion the institution seeks to embody.

Since its inception, the institution has evolved into a centre of educational excellence and has attained the distinction of being Kerala's first NAAC-accredited law college. It offers five-year integrated B.A. LL.B., B.B.A. LL.B. and B.Com. LL.B. courses at the undergraduate level and specialized LL.M. programmes in Constitutional Law and Maritime Law at the postgraduate level. The institution has also received recognitions such as the SILF-MILAT National Institutional Excellence Award. Beyond academics, it strives to encourage creativity and inquiry across diverse fields and provide a holistic educational experience.

ABOUT THE CENTRE FOR HUMAN RIGHTS

The Centre for Human Rights at Mar Gregorios College of Law is a dynamic platform dedicated to promoting awareness, research and advocacy in the field of human rights. The Centre seeks to sensitise students and the community to issues of human dignity, equality and social justice through academic initiatives and outreach programmes. By integrating theory with practice, the Centre aims to cultivate compassionate and socially responsible legal professionals committed to advancing justice and upholding the fundamental rights of all individuals.

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

The competition provides a platform for students, researchers, legal professionals and young scholars to explore contemporary issues relating to human rights, constitutionalism, social justice and inclusive development. It encourages critical thinking and meaningful discussion on emerging legal and social challenges in a rapidly changing society.

The competition covers diverse themes including civil liberties, digital rights and AI, access to justice, climate justice, health and education, women's rights, housing, food security, labour rights, data privacy, national security, and the rights of children and persons with disabilities. It aims to promote well-researched perspectives and innovative legal solutions while strengthening the values of equality, liberty, human dignity and justice.
