Submission Guidelines

1. Review Process

- ◆ All submissions undergo a double-blind peer review by domain experts.
- ◆ The identities of both authors and reviewers remain confidential to support objectivity and fairness.
- ◆ Manuscripts are assessed for scholarly quality, originality, relevance, methodological rigour, clarity of argument, and contribution to legal scholarship.
- ◆ The Editorial Board conducts an initial screening to assess compliance with the submission guidelines and overall suitability.
- ◆ Submissions that do not meet the prescribed standards may be rejected at this stage.
- ◆ The Editorial Board may suggest revisions where appropriate. Authors may be required to incorporate revisions within the stipulated timeframe.
- ◆ The decision of the Editorial Board shall be final.

It is important to note that submitting a paper does not guarantee selection. Papers must be accepted after a rigorous double blind peer review process.

2. Copyright & Publication Policy

- ◆ Upon acceptance and publication, copyright shall vest with the Journal.
- ◆ Authors shall continue to hold moral rights over their work, including the right to be identified as the author and to protect the integrity of the work.
- ◆ Submissions must be original and must not be under consideration for publication elsewhere at the time of submission.
- ◆ Simultaneous submissions to other journals, conferences, or platforms are strictly prohibited.

3. Publication & Certification

- ◆ Certificate of publication will be provided to all authors and co-authors.
- ◆ There is no publication fee for Volume 1, Issue 2.

4. Important Note

The Aditya Journal of Legal Studies is a quarterly print journal. There will be no e-version of the journal. Authors and co-authors who wish to receive an individual print copy will be required to pay the requisite amount, including print and postage costs.
