ABOUT MNLUCS

Recognizing the importance of quality legal education and the need for well-trained law graduates to serve the Bar, the Bench, and various professions, the State of Maharashtra took a significant step by establishing three National Law Universities at Mumbai, Nagpur, and Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar. Each of these universities was established as an independent and autonomous institution under the Maharashtra National Law University Act, 2014.

The newest addition to this group is Maharashtra National Law University, Chhatrapati Sambhajinagar, which officially commenced operations on March 16, 2017. The establishment of this University fulfilled a long-standing aspiration of the people of the Marathwada region for a premier national institution dedicated to legal education.

ABOUT SENIOR ADVOCATE LATE SHRI P.M. SHAH

(30th November, 1948 – 11th September, 2020)

Shri Pravin Mukutlal Shah was born into a humble family that faithfully followed Gandhian philosophy. He graduated from Government Law College, Mumbai, in 1975 and began his professional career at the Dhule District Court under the able guidance and mentorship of his father, Advocate Shri Mukutlal Shah.

Mr. Pravin Shah practised before several tribunals and quasi-judicial authorities, as well as the High Court and the Supreme Court of India. His contribution to the legal profession was recognised by the Bombay High Court when he was designated as a Senior Advocate on 18th January 2001.

His unparalleled reputation earned him the privilege of serving as a Member and Vice-Chairman of the Bar Council of Maharashtra & Goa. Mr. Shah, a lawyer par excellence, stood like an institution in himself and was one of the finest positive role models in the legal profession.

Like a lighthouse, his teachings, experiences, and the principles and ethics he practised will continue to guide members of the Bar. He will always be regarded among lawyers of the highest calibre and professional acumen in the history of the Bombay High Court, remembered for the great dignity and character embodied within him.

ABOUT THE ORGANISING COMMITTEE

The competition will be a collaborative effort by two Centres of the University—the Centre for Alternate Dispute Resolution (CADR) and the Centre for International Corporate and Commercial Laws (CICCL).

BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT CADR

The Centre for Alternate Dispute Resolution is an initiative aimed at promoting academic research on themes pertaining to Alternate Dispute Resolution. The Centre strives to contribute to the vision and mission of MNLUCS by developing human beings who are technically sound, socially relevant, and emotionally strong. This is achieved by imbibing skills associated with ADR methods, such as active listening, understanding others' points of view, discussion, empathy, rational thinking, and a commitment to community interest.

BRIEF INFORMATION ABOUT CICCL

The Centre for International Corporate and Commercial Laws focuses on the dissemination of knowledge relating to Corporate and Commercial Law prevailing in domestic as well as international arenas, and covers emerging trends in these fields. It works to bring together experts in these areas of law to stimulate research and debate in corporate and commercial law and practice, and to strengthen cooperation with other academic centres, international organisations, and the legal profession and fraternity.

ABOUT TRAINING PARTNERS

ABOUT THE COMPETITION

Eligibility:

Students enrolled in three-year and five-year law degree programmes, in any year, from any University, Law School, College, or Department are eligible to apply for registration.

Team Composition:

Each team shall comprise two participants, designated as Counsel 1 and Counsel 2. A maximum of two (2) teams shall be permitted to participate from one university/institution. Registration shall be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis, subject to the availability of slots and compliance with the eligibility requirements. Cross-institutional teams are not permitted.

Registration:

- The registration fee, which includes accommodation and food, shall be ₹7,000/- per team. The registration fee is non-refundable and non-transferable.
- To register, teams must fill out the Google Form through the provided link. Proof of payment must be submitted along with the online registration form.

Payment link: LINK

- Upon successful completion of registration, a Team Code shall be assigned to each team. The Team Code will be communicated to the registered team within 48 hours of registration.
- The Organising Committee shall have the exclusive authority to resolve any disputes related to registration. The decision of the Organising Committee in this regard shall be final and binding.

PROCESS OF THE COMPETITION

- The competition simulates a law office consultation in which two participants (Counsel 1 and 2) deal with a client. The participants are given a brief written memorandum that identifies the client's problem prior to interviews. The participant team conducts an interview with a dummy client and the judge evaluates the performance. The topic of client counselling shall be provided 24 hours prior to the competition and the client will be provided on the spot.
- During the counselling period, students are expected to elicit the relevant information from the client, explore with the client his or her preferred outcome, outline the nature of the problem, and suggest to the client to resolve the problem.
- The participants will be evaluated by a panel of Adjudicator considering the specific criteria based on listening to clients, questioning, planning and analytical skills of a lawyer.
- During Post counselling and consultation, Adjudicator can ask questions to the competitor for further clarification.
- Team members are entirely free to decide the work distribution, but both competitors must consult with the client as a team. It will be the full discretion of the organizing committee to select and allot the clients.

Theme:

The theme for all the rounds shall be based on any or the entire spectrum of laws including:

- IPR and AI Law
- White Collar Crimes

Along with other codified and un-codified laws relevant to the theme.

Four Rounds of the Competition:

A total of four rounds will be conducted as part of the competition. The number of teams and time allotment has been mentioned below:

Name of Round	Number of Teams	Time Allotted
Preliminary	*	30 minutes
Quarter-Final	8	35 minutes
Semi-Final	4	40 minutes
Final	2	50 minutes

- The Consultation Period (Interview Period):

The first 20 minutes in the Preliminary rounds, 25 minutes in the Quarter-final rounds, 30 minutes in the Semi-final rounds and 40 minutes in the Final round are devoted to consultation with the client during which lawyers are expected to elicit the relevant information, outline the problem and propose a solution or other means of resolving the problem.

- Post Consultation Period (Post Interview Period):

In addition to the time provided above, a post consultation period would be provided . During the post-consultation period, the students may either talk to each other loudly enough to be overheard by the Adjudicator, dictate a file memorandum on the interview, or both. The additional time would be of 5 minutes in the preliminary and the quarter-final rounds and of 10 minutes in the semi-final and the final rounds.

*Teams will be allotted on the basis of first come first served

The concept behind the post-consultation period is to summarize the interview, indicate the scope of the legal work to be undertaken, and state the legal issues that should be researched. An explanation of the position or attitude taken by the client students may be useful. The adjudicator may question the teams during the post-consultation period.

Note: During the consultation and post-consultation, the teams may use books, notes and other materials.

- Adjudicators' Question-Answer round:

The Adjudicators' question-answer round will be of 5 minutes in the preliminary and the quarter-final rounds and 10 minutes in the semi-final and the final rounds with the counsellors in addition to the time slots already allocated.

Marking Scheme:
